

11th January 2019

We would like to wish everyone a Happy New Year and trust that you all had a well-deserved break.

Unfortunately, Ms Williams has been off sick this week with bronchitis, but she hopes to return on Monday. Ms Williams is looking forward to seeing all the children again.

This month's value is Positivity

Positivity – Artist Unknown

This painting shows many signs of positive and healthy emotions. The first things that are noticeable are the colours. The colours within this painting display the emotions of love, happiness, brightness and balance. These emotions are all positive. Aside from the colours, we can also see that this is a picture of positive emotions by the brushstrokes. All the brushstrokes are in a fluid motion, allowing the colours to blend naturally. (Mrs Whitehouse)

Forest School Site Progress

We have exciting news about developments to our Eversley Forest School site. This week, the builders have begun constructing our new Forest School shelter on the field. In the coming months Colin, Ali and the team will be assembling a fence and large mud kitchen area. The development of our outdoor area is an essential part of further developing an engaging and enriching curriculum, that will provide greater opportunities for investigation of our natural world.

If you have an interest in getting involved in our Forest School sessions, please get in touch with Mrs Turner via the school office. (Mrs Turner)

Please be reminded that children are not permitted to bring any valuables to school as they could easily get lost or stolen, and the school cannot be held responsible.

This includes phones, expensive watches such as Fitbit and Apple watches, jewellery and any other valuables.

Thank you for your understanding and co-operation in this matter.

Enfield Music Service Music Lessons

Music lessons will start for this term on Monday 14th January, the days and times of the lessons have been communicated to the children, in addition, the complete timetable is in the school office and music room. All Music Clubs will start this week. (Mrs Evans)
