

Important News!

'I'm A Celebrity, Get Me Out of Here' will no longer use live critters during their famous Bushtucker Trials. The people in charge of the show have made the decision following campaigns against animal cruelty by charities and wildlife experts. The TV programme is known for the Bushtucker Trials that have involved the contestants facing their biggest fears which could be spiders, heights or being surrounded by critters.

Do you think they should ban the use of all animals and critters in the show?

Should animals be used for our entertainment?

- Did you know that there are laws to protect animals? Do you think that there should be? Why?
- Do you think it's fair that animals are used on TV programmes like I'm A Celebrity Bushtucker Trials for our entertainment? If not, what kinds of things do you think they should do instead?
- Can you think of other types of entertainment that use animals, such as pets in films or animal or bird shows at theme parks?

Talk to your partner and note down on your board any interesting thoughts

British Values

Rule of Law

Just like people, animals have rights and there are laws in place to make sure they are not mistreated in any way. It's important for us to support these laws to protect animals.